The "something" beyond the "real world"

Please visit: www.TheNthDim.com

Is there "something" besides what is called the "real world"? That "something" (which the website's author arbitrarily labels the "Nth Dimension") is the broad topic of the website. The website features (1) a newsletter, (2) articles and videos about alternative beliefs, astrology, cymatics, mysticism, numerology, occultism, parapsychology, personal development, philosophy, psychology, quantum physics, religion, santeria, self-help, spirituality, the supernatural, tarot, witchcraft, and other related topics as well as (3) special offers relating to the topics.

These topics are viewed with a healthy skepticism (i.e., an open but critical mind) for the ultimate purpose of making one's life better. For example, personal development, making more money, enjoying better health, having lasting, loving relationships, and so on and so forth.
